

British Academy Dissemination Event

“Developing a place-based understanding of poverty”

07 September 2011 (Wed), 2S17, Dalhousie Building, University of Dundee

9.30 - 09.50	Registration and Coffee
09.50 - 10.00	Welcome David Kirk, Town and Regional Planning (University of Dundee, UK)
10.00 – 10.50	Commencement of Sessions Chaired by Tony Jackson, Town and Regional Planning (University of Dundee, UK)  SESSION 1 – Dissemination of project findings and inputs from beneficiaries Dr. Deepak Gopinath (University of Dundee, UK) and Prof. Murali Nair (Cleveland State University, USA) – project investigators Summary of key findings from the study
10.50 - 11.30	Prof. Irudaya Rajan, Centre for Development Studies, Trivandrum, India Migration and Development: The Kerala Experience
11.30- 11.45	Coffee break
11.45- 12.45	Mr. Jacob Easow and Mr. Baiju Karunakaran, Government of Kerala, India Mapping the urban poor in Kerala: Tools and approaches
12.45-1.15	Lunch
1.15- 1.55	SESSION 2 – Revisiting concepts and value systems Ms. Suzanne Speak, Newcastle University, UK Reconceptualising Homelessness as a Value Driven Concept
1.55 - 2.35	Dr. David Vanderhoven, Sheffield, UK Community representation and legitimacy
2.35 - 2.50	Coffee break
2.50 – 3.30	SESSION 3 – Global perspectives on place-based understandings of poverty Dr. Dumiso Moyo and Howard Chitengi, University of Dundee, UK Urban poverty...African perspectives
3.30- 4.10	Prof. Murali Nair, Cleveland State University, USA Poverty and natural disasters: Insights from the rehabilitation of vulnerable communities affected by the Tsunami in Kerala and Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans
4.10-4.20	Prof. Murali Nair Summing up
4.20 – 4.30	Close